

Promote a thriving print industry and a thriving planet.

Recommend sustainable paper products to your clients. Together, we can lower our industry's carbon footprint one customer at a time.

Why Sappi Paper

- More than 80% of the energy used by Sappi's North American mills comes from renewable resources.
- Sappi has the lowest reported greenhouse gas emissions amongst the major North American coated free sheet suppliers.
- To protect the health of our forests, Sappi only uses sustainably harvested wood and uses recycled fibre in environmentally responsible ways.
- Sappi manages its processes to minimize waste and invests in lasting operating improvements rather than buying carbon offsets.

FEATURE BRAND: Opus

Engineered for maximum impact, this particular Sappi paper delivers striking, reliable performance across a range of weights and finishes, making it ideal for integrated print campaigns.

Valuable tools to help you educate your customers.
